

Written by

Thursday, 19 September 2013 11:14 - Last Updated Wednesday, 25 September 2013 20:42

Hi All,

I hope everyone had a great summer filled with fantastic kayaking and adventure. But the fun isn't over yet. While the midweek evening paddles have drawn to a close the club continues into the winter with trips every weekend and many other activities too. Events

- East Coast Sea Kayak Race: This Sunday 22 Sept, registration Bray yacht club at 11:30 Take part in our annual club race where you can take part to race or just for the craic. There will be a selection of other racing kayaks there too and it's a great spectacle.
- ISKA Symposium: October 12/13 This is a chance to catch up with paddlers from around the country, with courses and trips and there is never a shortage of entertainment!
- AGM: Friday December 6th in Doheny & Nesbitts - details to follow soon but please book the date in your diary.
- Dublin Bay VTS Dock tour. The postponed tour of the operations centre of Dublin port, which includes a boat tour of Dublin port is being rescheduled. This really is a one off chance to get a fantastic tour of the harbour operations. Details will be announced on the forum.
- Photo Competition - Anyone who has any interesting pictures should send them on to me and the winner will be announced at the AGM

For details on all our events check out the calendar: <http://ecskc.eu/events-calendar> Tra ning

Autumn courses: VHF and L3

L4 boot camps: For anyone who has completed the L4 course

Details will be announced on the forum as course dates are confirmed

As always, any suggestions, ideas and points of view are welcome, so feel free to contact the committee or post on the forum.

<http://ecskc.eu/contacts>